Good afternoon,

I am hoping to schedule a meeting with Attorney General Becerra on behalf of our client, the United Parcel Service ("UPS"). The purpose of the meeting would be to discuss the California Consumer Privacy Act.

Attending the meeting would be:

- Bruce D.D. Mac Rae – State Public Affairs Vice President, UPS
- Victoria King – Vice President of UPS Public Affairs
- Mark Lewis – Global Privacy Director, UPS
- Beau Biller – Platinum Advisors on behalf of UPS

Ideally, they were hoping to meet with the Attorney General for 30 minutes on either February 6th or 7th, 2019. If the Attorney General is unavailable both of those days but willing to meet, they can make themselves available at a future date. Please let me know if we may be able to schedule a meeting.

Thank you,

Subject: Becerra Invite

Ms. Lesser,

Two weeks ago we issued an invitation to Attorney General Xavier Becerra to be the honoree at the 2019 California Roast here in Sacramento. It is now with your scheduling office. We copied Roger Salazar, Sean McCluskie, and Liz Saldivar.

We only have less than three months until the event. Do you know if Attorney General Becerra has seen the invitation? We need to know pretty quick if he can do this! We would be so honored if he accepts.

The historical record attached has the Governors, Attorney Generals, Speakers and Senate Presidents we have honored in over 34 years.

Dear Attorney General Becerra,

Congratulations on your election as California's Attorney General!

I am writing to invite you to be the honored guest at the California Roast on May 28, 2019. The historical list attached has the top California elected officials we have honored in thirty-five years including Attorney Generals, Governors, Senate Presidents and Speakers. This event is a Sacramento tradition. We would be honored if you would accept.

Last year we did a California Toast of Women. This year we return to the California Roast, an opportunity for panel guests to honor you and your contributions with a lively and humorous exchange. The panel would be selected in consultation with you and your staff.

This is an extraordinary event and it is my final ask of elected officials as I turn over the California Center after nearly four decades as the founder to a new Executive Director. Belen Flores, the first woman and Latina, will take over for me on June 1, 2019.

Proceeds benefit our multi-partisan programs for young people, more important now than ever in our democracy. Our programs include Green Focus, Women in Politics and an array of foundation supported efforts in challenged communities. We are also the fiscal host and mentoring coordinator for the She Shares project.

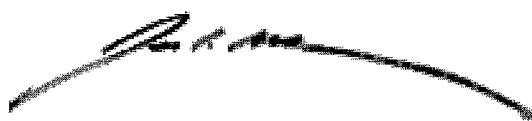

Five hundred people attend the event including legislators and the staff, executive branch officials and appointees, lobbyists, political consultants and friends of the guests. The audience enjoys the good natured exchange among the honored guests, and the history and future of California that is conveyed.

We handle logistics, invitations and promotion so as not to burden your staff. The event is presented as a fundraiser for the California Center for Civic Participation. We are supported by foundations, associations and corporations who do business in California.

Honorees are encouraged but not required to attend the reception and dinner. The reception is from 5:30-7:15 PM, dinner is from 7:15-8:00 PM, and the Roast is from 7:45-9:15 PM. The event is at the Sheraton Grand Hotel in Sacramento.

Thanks so much. We hope to get a preliminary indication from your office soon to get things rolling on our end.

Sincerely,

James C. Muldavin, Executive Director
California Center

Thank you for the clarification. The program is scheduled to run from 6:30-9:30pm. The event itself runs until 11pm because there is cocktail hour and dancing after the program, but those are options of the attorney general would like to stay. The event itself should be over by 10:00 for the attorney general to leave since it is likely people will want to talk to him after his address. However if he is unable to stay for too long we can accommodate his earlier departure. Please let me know if there are any other questions I can provide clarification on.

My best,

Good morning,

On behalf of Lisa García Bedolla, Director of the Institute of Governmental Studies at UC Berkeley, we would like to invite Attorney General Xavier Becerra to deliver a keynote speech prior to our California Votes 2018 conference. The main conference will be on Friday, Feb. 1 but the keynote speech would be in the late afternoon on Thursday, Jan. 31 at a location on or near the Berkeley campus. We could work with you to determine an exact time for the speech.

Thank you Brooke for taking the time to talk with me today.

As I indicated, we had tried for 3 months to get a response from UC Berkeley School of Law Dean Chermerinsky as to his availability, but did not get a response until late December. We start the planning and contacting speakers in the spring and early summer of the year prior to the conference. I am attaching the draft Brochure Flyer so you can see our extensive program. We are now behind in getting the flyer out as we have not confirmed our Friday lunch speaker. We are hoping Attorney General Becerra will be able to speak for us in Roseville, California either on Friday, April 12 at noon, or on Saturday, April 13 at noon. I am able to switch lunch speakers without any problem.

I understand that you generally do not review requests earlier than 60 days out, but I am hoping you can let me know if either of those days will work. If not, then I will need to immediately go back to the drawing board to find a speaker.

Thank you in advance for understanding my time sensitive dilemma.

Dear Colleagues,

It is my pleasure to announce the following two appointments:

Philip “Phil” Ferrari, as Special Assistant to the Attorney General. Phil will advise me and the Chief Deputy on white collar crime and criminal justice matters.

For nearly two decades, Phil has worked as a federal prosecutor with the United States Attorney’s Office for the Eastern District of California, most recently as the Chief of the Criminal Division. He has a wealth of experience and a deep interest in our criminal justice system. At the U.S. Attorney’s Office, he handled a wide variety of federal criminal prosecutions with a focus on white-collar crime, including investment fraud, mortgage fraud and health care fraud. He has extensive trial experience and has made multiple appearances in the Ninth Circuit. As Chief of the Criminal Division for the U.S. Attorney’s Office, he had supervision responsibilities over all prosecutions in the Eastern District, and he directly supervised the District’s National Security Unit, as well as the Criminal Division unit chiefs in Sacramento and the Victim-Witness Unit. From 2016 to 2017, he served as the First Assistant U.S. Attorney, second in command to the U.S. Attorney and assisted in the management and direction of more than 170 attorneys and support staff. Before joining the U.S. Attorney’s Office, Phil served in private practice at McCutchen, Doyle, Brown & Enersen (now Morgan, Lewis & Bockius) as part of their commercial litigation group, and he clerked for the Honorable Phyllis J. Hamilton at the United States District Court for the Northern District of California.

Phil graduated cum laude from the University of California Hastings School of Law with a Juris Doctor and a bachelor’s in English from the University of California, Los Angeles. In Phil’s spare time, he has served as a Big Brother for Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Sacramento, coached youth soccer and baseball, developed a mentor program for students from Luther Burbank High School, and helped to establish Operation Protect and Defend, a civics education program focusing on Constitutional rights, at high schools in the Fresno area.

Joe Adkins, as Director of the Technology Support Bureau (TSB) within the California Justice Information Services Division.

Joe brings over 20 years of information technology (IT) experience, including over six years as TSB’s Assistant Director assisting CJIS leadership with strategic planning and management of IT solutions. Most recently Joe led the Production and Network Services Branch overseeing a team of engineers who handled several large scale implementations for internal and external clients. He has been instrumental in ensuring the delivery of services and information through cost-effective, innovative, reliable and secure technology.

Prior to joining DOJ, Joe worked at several other state agencies such as the Office of Technology Service, the Employment Development Department, and the Department of Motor Vehicles, working his way up through the ranks into upper management. Joe has a proven record as an innovative leader, delivering complex IT projects, and providing exceptional customer service. Joe also served in the United States Air Force, for which we are thankful for his service.

Please join me in congratulating Phil and Joe on their recent appointments.
